

GGML shines at the PRST awards, winning 2 awards

Geita Gold Mining Limited (GGML) has continued to achieve success in various fields related to the community and the government in general after the company’s Public Relations and Communications Manager, Stephen Mhando emerged as the winner of the Best Public Relations Practitioner Award for the year 2022 in the mining sector.

The Public Relations excellence awards were given on February 18th, 2023 in Dar es Salaam by the Public Relations Society of Tanzania (PRST).

In addition, GGML also emerged as the 1st runner-up for implementation of its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR).

“I would like to thank the various stakeholders including my colleagues who have enabled me to emerge as a winner in this category. This victory is testament to hard work paying off,” said Stephen Mhando.

The awards, which have been given for the first time by PRST, aim to promote and inspire professional excellence, creativity in planning, advocating, influencing, implementing and measuring the roles of public relations practitioners in their workplaces.

GGML Public Relations and Communications Manager, Stephen Mhando

GGML PRST awards