Collaboration

This event and participation further promoted company values that speak off sustainability, excellence, and collaboration.

The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) is the world’s largest anti-fraud organisation and premier anti-fraud training and education provider. Together with more than 85000 members, the ACFE is reducing business fraud worldwide and inspiring public confidence in the integrity and objectivity within the profession. Since fraud has become increasingly more prevalent and complicated in the 21st century, the ACFE is continually researching and developing new publications, self-study products and cutting-edge fraud training conferences designed to educate and prepare fraud examiners for their challenges.

The event focused on educating and training fellow practitioners to join the global fight against fraud and minimise the impact of fraud and corruption.

Geita Gold Mine has an unwavering commitment to upholding the highest standards of corporate governance and ethical conduct. This it has shown in various forms by creating awareness among employees and sponsoring the comprehensive corruption prevention training program to be held next month which is aimed at promoting ethical practices and transparency in Tanzania.

Fraud prevention is a primary control to reduce the likelihood of fraud occurring, focusing on identifying controls to prevent all three conditions thus opportunity, rationalisation and incentive/pressure that must happen for fraud to take place.

GGM remains dedicated to fostering a work environment where ethical principles are upheld, and corruption has no place.

The annual Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) Africa Conference is recognised as the largest anti-fraud event in Africa and the second largest in the world.

The 15th edition of the conference held in September 2023, in Johannesburg, South Africa brought together hundreds of anti-fraud professionals from 21 countries with Two employees from AngloGold Ashanti Geita, Chris Pieters and Adrian Joubert representing at the prestigious event.
