

GGML Sponsors and Attends the Tanganyika Law Society Annual General Meeting: A Testament to Our Commitment to Law, Regulations, and Justice

AngloGold Ashanti's Vice President - Sustainability and Corporate Affairs Africa, Simon Shayo addressing delegates on the first day of TLS Annual General Meeting in Dodoma.

Geita Gold Mining Limited (GGML) proudly participated in and sponsored the recently concluded Tanganyika Law Society (TLS) Annual General Meeting (AGM). This prestigious event, held last week in Dodoma, brought together legal professionals from across the country to discuss critical issues affecting the legal landscape and to chart a path forward for Tanzania's legal community.

As a company deeply rooted in Tanzania existing for more than 20 years, GGML recognizes the essential role that the rule of law plays in fostering sustainable development, economic growth, and social stability. Our sponsorship and active participation in the TLS-AGM underline our solid obligation to upholding the highest standards of legal compliance, ethics, and justice in all our operations.

Supporting the Legal Community

At GGML, we believe that a robust legal framework is the backbone of any thriving society. This collaboration with the Tanganyika Law Society aims to promote a culture of transparency, accountability, and respect for the law, which are crucial elements in achieving long-term success and sustainability in both business and community endeavors.

At GGML, we understand that legal integrity is not just about compliance; it is about fostering an environment where fairness, justice, and ethical practices are at the forefront of every decision we make. Our operations are guided by a firm commitment to adhering to all applicable laws and regulations, ensuring that we conduct our business in a manner that is not only legally sound but also socially responsible.

We take pride in our efforts to go beyond mere compliance, striving to set a benchmark for corporate governance and ethical conduct in Tanzania. Our legal team works tirelessly to ensure that our business practices align with the highest standards of integrity, adhering to tax compliances, local content employment, safeguarding the rights and interests of our employees, stakeholders, and the communities we serve.

A Partnership for the Future

As we look ahead, we remain focused on building strong, enduring relationships with key stakeholders in the legal community. Our participation in the TLS AGM is just one example of our ongoing efforts to engage with and contribute to the broader societal framework that underpins our operations.

In conclusion, GGML is honored to have been a part of this year’s Tanzania Law Society Annual General Meeting. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to TLS for organizing a successful event, and we look forward to continuing our partnership in promoting legal excellence and justice in Tanzania. Together, we can achieve great things, ensuring that the principles of law and justice continue to guide our journey toward a brighter, more equitable future for all.

GGML representatives and delegates who attended the TLS Annual General Meeting 2024 event in Dodoma.